

Cammeray Croquet Club

'Peg-out Issue'

July/August 2019

<http://www.cammeray-croquet.org.au>

CNSW Pennants Competitions

As reported last month, entries were well down this year, with only Manly, Strathfield, Chatswood, Mosman, and Cammeray competing. But we can now give you the complete results:

- Bronze (h'cap 14-20) Warren Yates, Sandra Colquhoun, Ralda Kirton, Sue Nicholas, and Ray Kidd started with a 2-1 win at home to Strathfield, followed by a 1-2 loss at Mosman, then enjoyed a 2-1 win at Strathfield, but finished with a 0-3 loss at home to Mosman
- Silver (9-12) Peter Colquhoun, Marg O'Brien, Ian Lucas, Evelyn Humpherson, and Graham Maynard started with a 1-2 loss at Manly, and finished with a 1-2 loss at home to Manly,
- Gold (5-8) David Stanton, Sue Eldridge-Smith, Bebe Abdullah David Surridge, and Yours Truly started with a 1-2 loss at Mosman, followed by a 2-1 win against Chatswood, then a 1-2 loss at home to Mosman, finishing with a 1-2 loss at Chatswood

So no pennants for Cammeray this year.

June Social Function

Ralda Kirton, Kerry Phillips, and Penny Garret laid on a very tasty morning tea, and Sandra Colquhoun was once again in her element, organising games of Golf Croquet.

It was particularly encouraging to see so many newer members among the twenty-five or so participants, who enjoyed a balmy winter's day.

And we think you will agree that our intrepid photographer has managed to capture the action and excitement of the game quite brilliantly.

More results

Writing of Golf Croquet, reminds us to congratulate Peter Landrebe who late last month, won yet another NSW Open GC Singles championship.

And, coming back to AC, Neil Hardie recently won the Club Platinum championship in fine style, beating Barbara McDonald 26-1 in the final. In fact, he managed to peg out in all his matches, making him a man to watch. Well done, Neil!

Play is now under way in the Gold Championship, and entries are open for the Bronze Division.

In this issue

- Pennants competitions
- Social Function, and
- Competition results

Editorial, or the story so far ...

Readers of recent issues may recall that our hero, having produced a splendid 'Penultimate' issue, then proceeded to make short work of 'Rover', leading all to believe that a 'peg out' might be on the cards. Indeed, you may even notice that what you are reading is styled the 'Peg-out' Issue!

Life is rarely quite so obliging, however.

We had fond hopes of being able to resolve the 'cliff hanger' we left you with at the end of last month's chapter, by invoking the classic words of old-time thriller serials: 'with one bound he was free!'

But it seems our man is human after all. The game was there to finish, but in unseemly haste, he rushed his partner ball onto the peg – an egregious error!!

So he is obliged to quit the lawn ... but the game goes on!!

All that is needed is for some worthy opponent to step forward, make the easy roquet that has been left, and take the whole game to a higher level ...

Dictionary can be provided.

Coaching ditto.

Surely not too hard?!

Comment (and job applications) can be still be sent to the retiring editor, Michael Strickland:

stricko@ozemail.com.au